

I think that XM should be allowed to broadcast local traffic because the local broadcast stations do not offer up to date traffic and weather. By that I mean they offer it on the 8's or 11's and it very often is not current. Also I live in an area where regular broadcast stations do not come in very clear all the time and with XM I have never lost signal or clarity and can hear about current situations without interruption.